Herman B. "Barney" Bornhorst

Herman B. "Barney" Bornhorst, formerly of Fort Loramie, died Monday, Jan. 27, 2003 at 4:20 p.m. in Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, after a short illness.

Mr. Bornhorst was born in Fort Loramie, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Bornhorst.

He married his wife, Patricia, in Australia in 1945.

Survivors include daughters, Margaret and Jane Bornhorst, Suzanne Furness, Pamela K. Drew and Robyn Emerson; and six grandchildren.

Two sisters, Monica Bode of Alexandria, Va. and Joan Pfister of Eaton also survive. Two brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.

Mr. Bornhorst graduated from Fort Loramie High School in 1940. He graduated from Miami Jacobs Business College and worked for W.R. Hackett Wholesale Fruits and Vegetables in Dayton. He served in the U.S. Navy during W.W.II. He owned Flint's Fruit Market in Englewood and the Dairy King next door to the market. He received his engineering degree from the University of California in 1959 and moved with his family to Australia in 1961. He was a partner in Bornhorst and Ward Civil and Structural Engineers.

Services for Mr. Bornhorst were held at Our Lady of the Rosary Church in Kenmore, Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, Feb. 1.

He will be missed by his family and friends.
