

Rites Held For Mrs. Fleckenstein

Mrs. Catherine M. Fleckenstein, 86, 16 Elm St., Fort Loramie, widow of Conrad Fleckenstein, died at 6:50 p.m. last week Tuesday in Wilson Memorial Hospital, Sidney, where she had been a patient four hours. Death was due to a heart condition.

She was born Oct. 5, 1879 at Fort Loramie and was the daughter of the late Henry and Mary Ernst Hoelscher.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Theresa Kemper and Mrs. Robert (Emma) Nutt, Fort Loramie; four grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren; four sisters, Mrs. Anthony (Pauline) Seger, Fort Loramie; Mrs. Rose Hess, Amery, Wis.; Mrs. Margaret Hess, St. Henry; and Mrs. Lena Rutschling, Maria Stein; and one brother, Joseph Hoelscher, Sidney.

A daughter, two grandsons and three brothers are deceased.

Mrs. Fleckenstein was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church, St. Ann Altar-Rosary Society, Apostolic of Prayer, Catholic Ladies of Columbia and Knights of St. John Auxiliary.

The Rev. John Bruckert offered a Requiem High Mass at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in St. Michael Church, Fort Loramie, and burial was made in the church cemetery.

The Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, had charge of the arrangements.