

Zumbroegel, Oldiges Vows In St. Augustine's

In a nuptial high mass, the marriage of Miss Shirley Ann Zumbroegel and Anthony A. Oldiges, both of Minster, was solemnized Saturday, Feb. 19, in the St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster.

The mass was celebrated at 9 a.m. by the Rev. Father Raymond Schulltheis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Zumbroegel of 161 South Cleveland Street, Minster. Mr. Oldiges is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Oldiges of R. 1, Minster.

The double ring ceremony took place before the main altar flanked with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and greenery.

Luke Knapke, church organist, presented appropriate selections for the mass and accompanied Mrs. William Poepelman as she sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

The bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Dingleline of St. Marys served as matron of honor. Miss Beckie Kohne of Minster, a friend, and Miss Mary Ann Dingleline of St. Marys, niece of the bride, were bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid respectively.

The attendants were gowned in floor length aqua silk frocks with square necklines and double-belled sleeves. The semi-sheath skirts were accented with a white lace band with a small bow in the back. They wore matching crowns with four tiered pouf veils. White gloves and single strands of pearls completed their outfits.

Each carried an arrangement of yellow carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor length gown of silk, covered with imported brocade organza. The fitted bodice had tapered sleeves of lace, ending in bridal points at the wrists and closed with tiny buttons. She wore a pillbox hat of aliencon lace, edged with pearls.

A cascade arrangement of stephanotis surrounded a white cut-telleya orchid for the bridal bouquet.

A small bouquet of sweetheart roses was presented by the bride at the Blessed Virgin Altar at the conclusion of the mass.

David Seger of Minster served as best man while Thomas

Dingleline of St. Marys and Herbert Riehey of Minster were ushers. All were attired in black tuxedos with white carnation lapel flowers. The groom, also formally attired, wore a white rose boutonniere.

A mint green knit suit with beige accessories was selected by Mrs. Zumbroegel for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Oldiges chose a beige suit with dark brown accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A dinner and reception for the new Mr. and Mrs. Oldiges was held at Kemper's Grove near Minster.

Blue and white crepe paper streamers with the names of the bride and groom attached adorned the hall. Approximately 300 guests were expected to attend the reception. Serving the guests are the Misses Judith Grilliot, Marilyn Leugers, Marian Ripplio, and Marlene Water-cutter.

The bride chose a pink knit suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet as her travel costume when the couple left for a trip to New York.

They will make their home at 107 North Main Street, Minster.
