

S. Bensman And W. Veach Wed In Minster

MRS. WILLIAM VEACH

On Saturday, February 19, a nuptial ceremony united William John Veach of Richmond, Indiana, and Shirley Angela Bensman of here. The vows were spoken at 10:30 at St. Augustine's Church. The Rev. John Spatt officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bensman. He is the son of Mrs. Lewis Veach and the late Mr. Veach of Richmond, Indiana.

The high altar was flanked with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and greenery. The pews were marked with white satin bows.

Luke Knapke served as organist. Sarah Moorman was the vocalist and her selections were The Ave Maria by Rosewig, the Panis Angelicus by Frauck, The Dedication to the Blessed Virgin Mary was sung at the close of mass while the bride placed a bouquet on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Miss Norma Veach of Richmond served as the bride's maid of honor. She is a sister of the bridegroom. Her floor length gown was of emerald green brocade embroidered in blue. Her ensemble was completed with an emerald green veil caught to a satin ring. She wore matching slippers. Her flowers were chartreuse fuji mums.

The bride, escorted by her cousin, Vernon Madlinger of Dayton, wore a formal gown of ivory satin. It was styled with an empire bodice featuring a bateau neckline and mid length sleeves. The sleeves were enhanced with jewel embroidery. The A-line skirt ended in a chapel length train. She wore a mantilla of ivory imported net. The flowers she carried were white roses and stephanotis.

Richard Meredith of Richmond, Indiana served as best man. Ronald Roger of Detroit, Michigan, Robert Smith of Richmond, Indiana, and Chet Geriag of Greenville, Ohio, seated the wedding guests.

The men of the wedding party wore formal morning attire.

Mrs. Bensman chose a beige dress of taffeta and lace with which she combined beige accessories in peau de soie. Mrs. Veach wore a two piece ensemble in silk and chiffon of cinnamon brown. Her accessories were of the same color. Both wore flowers of green cattelaya orchids.

A buffet reception followed at the Shelby House, Sidney, for about seventy guests.

Green and white were the colors used in the decorations.

The bride changed to a lemon yellow knit suit when the couple left on a wedding trip to Boyse Mountain, Michigan.

Mrs. Veach is a graduate of Minster High School and was employed as a secretary with The Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., St. Marys.
