Nagel-Walters Nuptials Solemnized Saturday

Miss Rita Marie Nagel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nagel, became the bride of Clarence J. Walters of here, son of Raymond Walters of Coldwater, in a double-ring ceremony at the St. Augustine church Saturday morning. Rev. Fr. Otto Mueller heard the nuptial vows before a beautifully decorated altar. Large baskets of pink and white peonies graced the sanctuary. Mrs. H. J. Gudenkauf presided at the organ. Miss Martha Kinsman sang the Ave Maria. O Lord I Am Not Worthy, and On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother.

Attending the couple were Miss Norma Severin, cousin of the bride, and Fred Sommer, friend of the bridegroom. Mrs. Dorothy Braerman of Dayton, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Driving the wedding car was William Hilborn of Dayton, friend of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of beguine tulle with a portrait neckline filled in with nylon edged with longline lace. The collar caught with a clip of seed pearls. The gown had a fitted bodice with a full skirt of nylon ending in a circular train. Tiny self-covered buttons extended to the waist. The long sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her veil of illusion which fell from a half-halo of seed pearls was edged in lace with a blusher. Lace necklaces were sprinkled on the full train which ended in a double row of lace with an insertion of satin. She carried her solemn communion prayerbook with gardenias and streamers, and wore a cross and chain, her gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Severin wore a gown of ice blue nylon fashioned with sweetheart neckline, short sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt with a peplum edged in rows of silk braid. Her open bonnet of blue net was trimmed with blue velvet streamers. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Braerman wore a gown of pink nylon, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, short sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt which had a braid design. Her open bonnet of pink net was trimmed with pink velvet streamers. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Both attendants wore pearl necklaces, their gifts from the bride.

The bridegroom and his attendant wore morning suits.

Mrs. Nagel wore for her daughter's wedding a two-piece dress of black and blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of white roses and carnations.

The wedding breakfast and dinner were served at the home of the bride with a reception at the Eagles' hall for 120 guests and a private dance in the evening. Miss Mary Jenn Westerbeide, cousin of the bride, greeted the newlyweds with a speech at the hall.

The bride formerly held a position as payroll clerk at the Minster Machine company. Her husband, a veteran of 33 months in the South Pacific who returned to the States last November, is a machinist at the Minster Machine company.

Mrs. Walters chose for going away a suit of yellow and brown with brown accessories and a corsage of white and pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Walters left on a week's trip after which they will reside with her parents.
