

DeMange/Withrow '20s Hollywood-themed wedding

Kelsey DeMange and Sean Withrow recently exchanged marriage vows on Saturday, August 2, 2014, at St. Nicholas Catholic Church in Osgood, Ohio. The celebratory Mass, officiated by Fr. David Zink, included twelve musicians and 25 vocalists.

The 1920s Hollywood-themed wedding offered an opportunity not only for the wedding party to commemorate that era by wearing the fashions of the Roaring '20s, but also encouraged the guests to participate in dressing the theme. The flair of those days-gone-by was continued with the dinner music and unique decorations at Osgood American Legion Hall. That evening, the floor was filled with guests of the DeManges and Withrows as they danced to the music of Empty Tank.

The bride is the daughter of Ken and Angie DeMange of Versailles. Her grandparents are Carl and Linda Meyer of Versailles, and the late Paul and Helen DeMange, also of Versailles.

The groom is the son of Rob and Sue Withrow of Beavercreek. His grandparents are the late Chang Hun Son and Chang Soon Lee, and Sarah Withrow and the late Rev. Edward Merlin Withrow.

The bridesmaids enhanced the 1920s Hollywood theme by wearing glass beaded flapper dresses and head bands featuring a vintage brooch. Bailey DeMange served as Maid of Honor for her sister, Kelsey. Other bridesmaids included Jacquelyn Combs, sister of the groom, Heidi DeMange, sister-in-law of the bride, Allison Eiting, friend of the couple, Elizabeth Coons, cousin of bride, and Josalyn Withrow, sister-in-law of the groom.

The groomsmen sported slim-fitted, classic black tuxes with bow ties. Patrick Withrow, Sean's brother, held the duties of Best Man. Kelsey's brothers, Tyler DeMange and Mason DeMange, were also honored to serve as groomsmen. Friends of the couple in the wedding party included John Agnew, Tim Baker, Perry McDonnell, Nathan Stafford, Eddie Wells, Sterling Finkbine and Tommy Skelton.

Kelsey is a graduate of Versailles High School and earned a bachelor of music degree from Wright State University. She is currently employed at Reading Community Schools in Cincinnati as a music educator. Sean is a graduate of Beavercreek High School and graduated with a bachelor of arts in English from Wright State University. He is currently employed at Middletown Pharmacy.
