

Minster siblings graduate same day

Daniel and Melissa Garmann, son and daughter of Brad and Sandy Garmann, of Minster, both received their bachelor's degree from the University of Cincinnati on Saturday, June 14.

Daniel, president of the Minster High School Class of 2003, completed his five-year, Bachelor of Science of Aerospace Engineering. He graduated magna cum laude, was second in his class, was a University Honors Scholar, received the Ferdinand L. Weston Award for High Scholastic Achievement and served as treasurer of Tau Beta Pi, the Engineering Honor Society.

Melissa, salutatorian of the Minster High School Class of 2004, completed her four-year Bachelor of Science of Architecture. She graduated as an Honors Scholar with High University Honors. Melissa studied in Europe and worked in Washington, D. C. and Cincinnati during her cooperative education.

Both plan on pursuing their master's degrees at the University of Cincinnati starting this fall.