

Wagner's serves up great customer service

When only the finest quality foods matter, Wagner's IGA in Minster, and Wagner's IGA Village Market in Fort Loramie, are the best places to get what you need.

Wagner's IGA was founded on a tradition of excellence by first-generation family owner and founder A.J. Wagner in 1922. The original site, located at 91 W. Fourth St., a portion of the current Minster Bank site, sold only groceries and no meat or produce.

Due to his success, Wagner added a 1,500 square-foot meat department to the building just 10 years later in 1932 before moving to a new location at 40 W. Fourth St. and adding produce.

In 1946, returning from the armed services, Wally Wagner Sr., joined his father A.J. in the grocery business and in 1952 A.J. and Wally Wagner added another 1,200 square feet to their building, where the business remained until 1979.

In order to keep up with the demand of the late '70s, Wagner's IGA moved to their current location at 257 E. Fourth St. in 1979, a move that more than tripled the size of the store — to 7,500 square-feet — and allowed the addition of the now-popular deli and bakery departments.

Under the leadership and management of third-generation owner Wally Wagner Jr., Wagner's IGA expanded into a second location, Wagner's IGA Village Market, in Fort Loramie, and remodeled the original location in 2006 to add a Subway, coffee bar and Wagner's Signature Café.

The principles of providing consistently excellent customer service and quality products that A.J. Wagner dreamed of and believed in continues to this day at both of the Wagner's IGA locations in Minster and Fort Loramie.
