

Thursday, January 19, 2012

Obitu

Cleona C. Wyen

Cleona C. Wyen, 90, formerly of Minster, passed away at 4:05 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 12, 2012, at Briarwood Manor in Coldwater, where she had been a patient for two years.

She was born on March 3, 1921, in St. Patrick, the daughter of Joseph and Henrietta (Alternatt) Meyer.

On June 3, 1941, she married Victor A. Wyen, and he preceded her in death on May 26, 1974.

She is survived by her children, the Rev. Larry Wyen of Coldwater, Kathy and Steven Arshan of New Jersey, David and Jane Wyen of Texas, Dennis and Winnie Wyen of Troy, Jim Wyen of Minster, Vicki and Max Cotterman of New Bremen, Carol and Rick Hoffman of Cincinnati, Mary Kay Wyen of Minster, Ted and Tina Wyen of Enon, Philip and Diane Wyen of Minster, Doug Wyen of Sidney; 25 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Vernon Meyer of Fort Loramie, Lawrence and Helen Meyer of McCartyville; two sisters-in-law, Betty Wyen of Minster, Phyllis Poepelman of Egypt.

A son, Richard Wyen, preceded her in death. His wife, Paula, survives and lives in Columbus. She was also preceded in death by three sisters; three brothers; three young siblings; two grandchildren.

She was a member of St. Augustine Catholic Church, a past sacristan of the church, a volunteer with the Mission Commission and garage sales, and a member of the Auglaize County Board of Mental Retardation.

She was a homemaker and worked at Wyen and Cotterman, the Minster Canning Factory and K-Mart.

A Mass of Christian burial was celebrated at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 18 at St. Augustine Church in Minster, with the Rev. Larry Wyen and the Rev. Rick Nieberding officiating. Burial followed at St. Augustine Cemetery.