Thomas L. Hausfeld

Thomas L. Hausfeld, 50, of Springboro died Thursday April 1, 2010. Tom graduated from Minster High School and attended the University of Toledo. Following college Tom and his brothers helped at the family business, Linie Hausfeld Motor Sales. He was a co-owner of Auto Disposal Systems Inc. He sold the company in 2006 and retired to pursue other interests. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle, refereeing high school basketball, collecting Pontiac GTO Judges, flying and golfing with friends. He was a loving husband, a proud father and a great son, brother and friend. He was a former national president of the American Salvage Pool Assoc. He was very involved in the current Capital Improvement Campaign at Alter High School where he also has served on the Alter Board of Trustees for several years.

Tom was preceded in death by his daughter, Kacie. He is survived by his loving wife of 29 years, Lori and his daughter, Alexis "Alli." He also leaves his parents Linie and Marie Hausfeld, his brothers, Doug (Elaine) Hausfeld and Brad (Chris) Hausfeld, his father and mother-in-law, Vernon and Treva Barhorst and several brothers and sisters-in-law, Glen (Jeanie) Barhorst, Randy (Denise) Barhorst, Elaine (Jay) Sargeant, Theresa (John) Buschur, Mithc (Jill) Barhorst and 21 nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Chrisitan Burial was celebrated on Wednesday April 7 at St. Henry Catholic Church. Graveside services took place on Wednesday at St. Augustine Cemetery in Minster.

Memorial contributions may be made to Dayton Right to Life, which Tom and Lori have supported for many years.
