

James Thomas Heitkamp

James Thomas Heitkamp, 51, of 3774 Philothea Rd., Coldwater, died Friday, Oct. 1, 2004 in his residence.

Mr. Heitkamp was born Feb. 9, 1953 in Coldwater, the son of Ivo and Wilma Dues Heitkamp, who survive in Philothea.

Other survivors include brothers Gerald (Carol) of Philothea, and Jack (Linda) of St. Henry; and sisters, Joyce (Paul) Hart of Coldwater, Jane (Steve) Keller of New Weston, Judy (Ed) Brand of North Star, and Janice (Rod) Klenke of St. Anthony.

Mr. Heitkamp was a member of St. Mary Catholic Church, Philothea, the Men's Holy Name Society of the church, and the Companions of the Precious Blood. He was an adult mass server.

He belonged to the Wendelin Sportsmen's Club, and was a 20-year volunteer at the Neurological Center as a foot reflexologist.

He was formerly employed at Hemmelgarn Eggs in Philothea.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Oct. 5 at St. Mary Church. Burial will follow in St. Mary Cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Coldwater, handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Neurological Center, Burkettsville, Ohio. or to the charity of the donor's choice.