

Raymond B. Riethman

Raymond B. Riethman, 92, 9091 Blanke Rd., Anna, Ohio, died Tuesday, Sept. 14, 2004 in Wilson Hospital, Sidney. He was a resident of Heritage Manor Nursing Center for nine months.

Mr. Riethman was born June 16, 1912 in McCartyville, the son of the late Joseph and Agnes Prenger Riethman.

He married Lorena M. Reichart, Oct. 30, 1946 in Cassella. She died June 20, 2002.

Survivors include sons Robert of McCartyville and Raymond Jr. (Barbara) of McCartyville; daughters Mary Jane (David) May of Tipp City and Patricia (Thomas) Horstman of Beavercreek; and 11 grandchildren.

A brother, Bernard of McCartyville, and sisters, Marcella Pleiman of McCartyville, Cecilia Eyink of Chickasaw and Lorena Heitkamp of McCartyville, also survive.

Mr. Riethman was a member of Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, McCartyville, and the Knights of Columbus No. 5239 McCartyville/St. Patrick.

He belonged to the Shelby County Farm Bureau.

He was an Army veteran of W.W. II and a retired farmer.

Rev. Patrick Welsh celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial, Sept. 18 at Sacred Heart Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, handled the arrangements.