

Celebrations

Maltinsky-Blom wed in May

Mindy M. Maltinsky of Minster and Jason R. Blom of Beavercreek exchanged vows at 1:30 p.m., May 31, 2008, at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster.

The bride is the daughter of Gregory and Joann Maltinsky of Minster, and the groom is the son of Michael and Cheryl Blom of Beavercreek. The bride is the granddaughter of Gene and Janice Oliver of Versailles and Paul and Ann Maltinsky of Minster. The groom is the grandson of Kathryn and the late Robert Menard of Vermont and the late Robert and Rossella Blom of Minnesota.

Reverend Rick Neiberding performed the ceremony. Providing music for the event was the St. Augustine Men's Choir, under the direction of Amy Noykos. Vocal soloist was Freddie Purdy, 12-year-old cousin of the bride. Greeters were Lauren and Jenna Adams and Lauren and Faith Hagelberger. The bride's assistant was Julie Hagelberger.

The bride wore a white, metallic beaded and embroidered satin, strapless A-line gown. It featured a crystal and pearl beaded chiffon split-front overlay and chapel length train. The two-tiered, elbow-length veil was edged in sequins. Her headpiece was a tiara encrusted in swarovski crystals. Escorted by her father, she carried a clutch-style bouquet of stargazer lilies, black magic roses, hot princess roses, pearl-studded stephanotis, burgundy calla lilies and hot pink gerbera daisies. The center of each rose was accented with a single shimmering crystal.

