

November wedding ceremony is planned

Arlana Kathleen Garrison, daughter of Randy and Beverly Garrison of Versailles and Scott Douglas Bruey, son of Paul and Marjorie Bruey of Osgood are announcing their upcoming marriage.

The bride elect is a 1991 graduate of Versailles High School, attended Wright State University for two years and is currently employed at Whirlpool Corporation in Greenville. She is also a certified emergency medical technician for Whirlpool and the Ansonia Area Rescue Squad.

The prospective bridegroom is a 1988 graduate of Marion Local High School and is a currently employed at Precision Strip Inc. in Minster. He is also a member of the Osgood Volunteer Fire Department.

The couple will exchange vows on Nov. 22 at St. Nicholas Church in Osgood at 1:30 p.m., observing the custom of open church. A reception will follow at Romer's Banquet Hall in St. Henry.

SCOTT BRUEY AND ARLANA GARRISON