Mr. and Mrs. Jason Calcitrai

July ceremony unites city boy, country girl

"Once upon a time, there was a country girl and a city boy...And they lived happily ever after."

Christa Marie Hemmelgarn and Jason Charles Calcitrai were married July 16, at St. Louis Catholic Church with the Rev. David Zink and the Rev. David Cortesi receiving the couple's vows.

Christa, the daughter of Dave and Deb Hemmelgarn, North Star, was given in marriage by her father. The matron of honor was Alicia Dirksen, sister of the bride. The attendants were Laura and Kara Hemmelgarn, sisters of the bride; Natalie Calcitrai, sister of the groom; and Donneta Shardo, Kristin Stammen and Alison DeVilliers, friends of the couple.

Jason, son of Chuck and Terry Calcitrai, Chicago, IL, chose his friend, Greg Glowacz to be best man. Groomsmen were Tony Kass, Ricky Wenzl, Lenny Grandsart, Lenny Fayard, Marty Jennings and Dave Seffen, friends of the couple.

Ushering guests were Aaron Dirksen, brother-in-law of the bride; and Mike Cheetham, friend of the couple.

A dinner reception was held at Romer's Catering in St. Henry.

The new Mrs. Calcitrai is a 1998 graduate of Versailles High School, and a 2002 graduate of the University of Dayton. She is currently a high school math teacher in the Lakota School District in West Chester.

Calcitrai is a 1998 graduate of St. Patrick High School in Chicago, and a 2002 graduate of the University of Dayton. He is currently an E-commerce Analyst at Frontgate, a home furnishings catalog in West Chester.

The couple resides in Cincinnati.
