

October ceremony unites couple

Tara Meyer, the daughter of Kenneth and Ann Meyer of Minster, and Matthew Montgomery, the son of Danny and Debbie Montgomery of Cleves, Ohio, were joined in marriage, Oct. 19, 2002 at St. Augustine Catholic Church.

Fr. Louis Schmit celebrated the nuptial mass. Musical accompaniment was provided by vocalists Annie Winner and Jim Maurer, organist Amy Noykos and trumpeter Larry Coppess. Servers at the mass were Dane and Logan Sommer and John Eiting. Readers were Wendy Evans and Heather McClurg; Phyllis Meyer and Thomas Boecker.

The bride was escorted by her father, wearing a Ginja Collections strapless gown in matte satin with a chapel train. The bodice was embellished with Venice lace and pearls. Her elbow-length veil was secured by a pearl band. She wore a diamond pendant belonging to her late grandmother Martha Boecker and carried a hand-tied bouquet of white gerbera daisies, burgundy and butterscotch cushion mums and solidago, caught together with silver chiffon ribbon.

The bride's sister, Natalie Meyer served as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Kimberly Frey, sister of the groom; Carey O'Neil and Kristina Boecker, cousins of the bride; and Krista Watercutter, Leslie Rithman, Kelly McManus and Jennifer Lipps, friends of the couple. They wore cranberry colored French satin Bill Pesce gowns from Jordan Limited, with beaded trim on the bodice, and a-line skirts. They carried bouquets of red gerbera daisies with fall tone cushion mums and solidago, tied with silver ribbon.

James Schenk, a friend of the couple, served as best man; and Aaron Frey, brother-in-law of the groom;

Bradley Fox, friend of the couple; Andrew Meyer, brother of the bride; and Christopher Chirumbolo, Gregory Homoelle, and Matthew Frost were the groomsmen.

Christopher Frey, nephew of the groom was the ring bearer.

The groom wore a black tux with a white vest and tie. The groomsmen wore black tuxes with black vest and platinum tie.

The bride's mother wore a black tea length georgette skirt with a beaded top of black and silver.

The groom's mother wore a floor length silver satin gown with a matching jacket.

The mothers wore wrist corsages of cushion mums in fall colors with silver ribbons.

The bride's grandparents are Fred Boecker and the late Martha Boecker; Urban and Eileen Meyer. The groom's grandparents are Darvin and Joanne Parry; the late James and Mossie Montgomery.

A reception was held at St. Michael's Hall in Fort Loramie following the ceremony. Kimberly Boecker, a cousin of the bride, was the guest book attendant.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Wooden Shoe Inn.

Mrs. Montgomery has a masters degree in physical therapy and is currently employed by Deaconess Hospital. Her husband has a bachelor's degree in business administration and is an account manager at Sara Lee Foods. The couple received their degrees from College of Mount St. Joseph, Cincinnati, where they met.

After returning from a honeymoon trip to Jamaica, Matt and Tara are residing in Cincinnati.
