

Tricia Fogt and Adam Olberding, both of Minster, have announced their plans to marry on May 19, 2012, at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Tracy and Elizabeth Fogt, of Minster. She is a 2005 graduate of Minster High School. She earned an associate of science degree in business management from Wright State University. She is employed at New Bremen Eye-Care.

The prospective groom is the son of Ron and Jean Olberding, of Minster. He is a 2002 graduate of Minster High School. He is employed at the Village of Minster in Public Works. He also works on his family's farm.