Livingston and Schwartz wed in Beavercreek

Molly Erin Livingston, daughter of John and Marcia Livingston, of Richwood, and Eric Michael Schwartz, son of Michael and Victoria Schwartz, of Minster, were united in marriage at St. Andrew United Methodist Church, in Beavercreek, on Nov. 4, 2006. The couple was united in marriage by the Rev. Linda Middelberg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown of candlelight ivory organza. The fitted basque waist bodice gave way to an A-line skirt and a semi-cathedral length train. It was trimmed with embroidery, sequins, pearls and silver metallic accents. She wore a tiara and medium length veil trimmed in satin and silver thread. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of stargazer lilies, burgundy snapdragons, pink roses, delphinium and heather.

Marcia Livingston, mother of the bride, served as matron of honor. Lacy Koogler, friend of the bride, and Abby Schwartz, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaids. Chloe Richardson, cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore two-piece magenta dresses trimmed in beads and carried colonial bouquets of dark pink snapdragons, pink gerbera daisies, delphinium and heather.

Jason Grieshop, friend of the groom, served as best man. Michael Kaiser and Justin Patch, friends of the groom, served as groomsmen. Dalton Richardson, cousin of the bride, served as junior groomsman.

Noah Livingston, brother of the bride, served as acolyte and read from the book of Corinthians during the ceremony. Marlene Garrett, aunt of the groom, read from the book of John. Abby Schwartz was the vocal soloist before and during the ceremony. Amber Richardson and Brooke Keever, cousins of the bride, served as guest book attendants.

The candlelight buffet reception was held at the Presidential Banquet Center, in Kettering. After honeymooning in Jamaica, the couple now resides in Kettering.

The bride is a graduate of North Union High School and holds a bachelors and masters degree from Wright State University. She is employed at Air Technologies in Middletown as a regional aftermarket team leader. The groom is a graduate of Minster High School, Miami University and Wright State University. He is employed as a senior consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton, in Kettering.
