Wehrmans celebrate 50 years

Eugene and Marjorie Wehrman, of Yorkshire, will mark their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 4, 2007.

Eugene and the former Marjorie Hemmelgarn were married Sept. 4, 1957, at St. Bernard Catholic Church in Burkettsville, with the Rev. E. M. Gengler officiating the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are the late Walter and Alberta Hemmelgarn of Burkettsville.

The bridegroom's parents are the late Bernard and Ursula Wehrman of Fort Loramie.

Their witnesses were the late Walter Hemmelgarn, Jr. and Margie (Bruns) Albers.

The couple has four children, Bernard (Ann) Wehrman of Minster, Sandra (Terry) Mathewson of Rockford, Carol Albers of Yorkshire, and Pamela (David) Seger of Fort Loramie. They also have nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Gene is the brother of Viola Bruns of Coldwater, the late Olivia Eilerman, Albert Wehrman of Fort Loramie and the late Adella Heitkamp. Marge is the sister of the late Walter Hemmelgarn, Jr. and Roman Hemmelgarn of Fort Recovery.

Gene retired from Monarch-Sidney in 1997 after 43 years of service. Marge was employed at the former Huff's corporation for 20 years and retired from Minster Local Schools in 2006.

The couple will celebrate with a 10:30 Mass on Sunday, Sept. 2, at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Egypt.

A dinner with family and friends will follow the Mass at the K of C Hall in Minster.

A traditional open house will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.
